

Seal Court

At the east end of the Malott Commons is Seal Court. It is bounded by the Motley Coffeehouse on the north side, the Mailroom on the south side, the dining hall to the West, and Vita Nova Hall to the East.

The fountain in Seal Court features mosaic murals created by various students since the 1940s. Certain parts of the original art center were preserved, allowing Seal Court to look very much as it has for decades.